Note: This schedule is tentative as of July 18, 2016. The majority of the events are for the Marching Band; however, the entire concert band will perform at one of the games (10/14) as well as the parades. Watch for emails throughout the remainder of the summer for any schedule changes that may become necessary. Additional rehearsals, especially for the band front and percussion section, may be necessary. Please mark these dates on your calendars. More information concerning the fall performance schedule will be available at rehearsals in August. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at:
